CARAVAN & MOTORHOME APPLICATION FORM & EARLY BIRD TICKET OFFER (DEADLINE 31 JAN 19)

THE ROYAL NAVY INTERNATIONAL AIR DAY 2019 – CARAVAN SITE RULES

NB. These rules are for essential safety and security reasons and for the consideration of other patrons. The site warden may order you to vacate the site at any time if any of the rules below are violated. Everyone in your party must comply with the instructions of the site warden and base security personnel.

1. Speed Limit. No vehicle is to exceed 5 m.p.h. throughout the site.
2. Parking. The parking of caravans and motor-homes is to be done with due consideration to fire and pedestrian safety along the following guidelines:
  - Any reversing on entry to a parking spot must be supervised by an adult to ensure pedestrians are well clear, especially children (any such supervision must NOT be done by children).
  - A minimum of 6 metres parked separation is to be maintained between facing walls of adjacent caravans and motor homes. The Site Warden will advise where necessary.
  - Parking must be done such that all caravans & motor homes can exit without requiring another caravan/motor home to move first.
  - Departure from each parking space can be done without requiring reversing.
  - Parking of caravans, motor-homes or towing vehicles must not impede emergency vehicle access route to any caravan/motor-home. Caravan towing vehicles should be parked along the side of caravans.
3. Fire Safety.
  - Ignition sources such as camp fires, fireworks and Chinese lanterns (or similar) are always strictly prohibited
  - BBQs are only allowed provided they do NOT sit directly on to the ground and are sited at least 3m away from caravans and motor vehicles.
  - Naked flames or BBQs should never be left unattended by an adult
  - All caravans & motor-homes should be equipped with suitable BSI/BAFE approved fire extinguisher and all owners should be aware of how to use it. Use of Carbon Monoxide and Smoke alarms is strongly recommended.
  - Do not tamper with the fire notices or the fire-fighting equipment provided for your safety.
  - Portable generators should not be left running unattended nor refuelled whilst running.
4. Security. All members of your party must submit to being searched, if asked to do so by base security personnel. Your vehicle and chattels may also be searched as a condition of entry onto this on-base caravan site. All caravan site users must be in possession of a valid 2019 Royal Navy International Air Day admission ticket.

THE ROYAL NAVY INTERNATIONAL AIR DAY RNAS YEOVILTON - SAT 13 JULY 2019

CARAVAN & MOTORHOME APPLICATION FORM & EARLY BIRD TICKET OFFER (DEADLINE 31 JAN 19)

5. Environment.

- Respect for the environment should always be shown, including to the site land, trees, fences and facilities.
- Portable generators should be placed on a drip tray to contain any possible leakage of fuel; funnels must be used if any refuelling is required.
- Disposal of "grey water" and emptying of portable toilets is only to be done in the suitably marked facilities provided. Do not empty any waste fluid onto the ground or into drains.
- Do not use the fresh water supply for cleaning or filling portable toilets.
- Please clear all litter from your site, using the suitably marked waste facilities if required, with a mind for recycling whenever possible.
- After using the washroom, shower and toilet facilities, please leave them as you would wish to find them. Please report any hygiene issues to the Site Warden.

6. Noise. Noise should always be kept to minimum but more especially after dark. Generators should not be used between 2100hrs and 0700hrs.

7. Supervision of Children. Children should not be left unsupervised by an adult at any time and care should be taken near moving vehicles and BBQs. Ball games are not permitted close to caravans or motor vehicles.

8. Prohibitions.

- No stakes or tent pegs over 6 inches long should be placed into the ground anywhere on this caravan site – due to possible electrocution risk from underground cables. So, the use of tents, trailer tents and awnings are not allowed.
- No pets of any kind are permitted, except for Guide Dogs accompanying individuals with sensory impairment.
- The flying of kites, drones, model planes, Chinese lanterns or balloons is always strictly prohibited for reasons of Flight Safety.
- The use of catapults, bows & arrows or airguns is always strictly forbidden.

EMERGENCIES.

9. Emergencies of any nature are to be reported to the Site Warden or a member of the organiser's event team immediately. Alternatively, call 01935 452222 for emergency assistance.

10. All members of your party must follow instructions given in the event of an emergency and must evacuate the campsite calmly should the need arise, with due care for other people.

PLEASE RETAIN FOR REFERENCE DURING YOUR STAY AT RNAS YEOVILTON.
