

Commodore Duncan Lamb, MA RFA

Commodore Lamb has predominantly spent his last 38 years at Sea with Commands across the RFA Flotilla.

Shore appointments have included Deputy Assistant Chief of Staff Afloat Support, Deputy Assistant Chief of Staff Strategy and Development, COMRFA Staff Warfare Officer and RFA Staff Warfare Officer to FOST.

He gained his Master Mariner's certificate in 1988 and completed PWO(A) training in 1991 following a appointment to HMS Glasgow (STANAVFORMED).

He completed the Advanced Command and Staff Course in July 04 gaining an MA in Defence Studies from King's College London.

On promotion to Captain he Commanded a number of RFAs including SIR Bedivere supporting Iraqi Naval Ops and training in the Northern Gulf and Wave Ruler and Wave Knight both deployed on APT(N).

Cdre Lamb was born in Dundee and educated at the Royal High School and Currie High School in Edinburgh. He now lives near Stirling with wife, Catriona and has two sons.

He enjoys most sports, plays squash and tennis and, when the appointment cycle allows, skis.

He also likes current affairs, computing, and reading and is a member of the Younger Brethren of Trinity House.