CHAPTER 102*NAVAL CADET FORCES*10201. Naval Cadet Forces

The MOD-sponsored Naval Cadet Forces aim to provide a challenging and stimulating contemporary 'cadet experience' that develops and inspires young people within a safe environment.

10202. Regulations

Detailed regulations for the administration of MOD sponsored Naval Cadet Forces are contained in the following publications:

- a. JSP 814 - Policy and Regulations for MOD Sponsored Cadet Forces.
- b. JSP 313 - Combined Cadet Force Manual.
JSP 313 - RN Supplement.
- c. Sea Cadet Regulations.
- d. Volunteer Cadet Corps Regulations (VCCRs).

10203. Sea Cadet Corps (SCC)

- a. The SCC is a voluntary nautical youth organisation that is administered by the Marine Society and Sea Cadets (MSSC) and is governed by charity law and its own regulations plus a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the MoD. The MSSC is the governing body of the SCC. Each Sea Cadet Unit is a registered charity and is a member of the Corps by virtue of its affiliation to the MSSC. Detailed regulations for the running of the SCC are contained in the MOU, JSP 814 and SCRs.
- b. The SCC is defined as those properly constituted maritime cadet units, which conform to the policies of the Sea Cadet Regulations, established by the MSSC and which are formally affiliated to it.
- c. The MSSC is a Registered Charity; it is managed by an independent group of trustees. The objects of the MSSC, as set out in the governing instruments of the charity, are inter alia to promote the development of young people in achieving their physical, intellectual and social potential as individuals and as responsible citizens by the provision of education and leisure time activities using a nautical theme, to advance the education of seafarers, including members of the Sea Cadet Corps and to promote the customs and traditions of the Royal Navy (RN).
- d. The MSSC meets its charitable objects by providing administration support, marketing, training resources, field management, financial management, supervision and health and safety guidance to the SCC. It promotes the development of young people in achieving their physical, intellectual and social potential as individuals and responsible citizens and takes individuals from all backgrounds and circumstances.

10204. Volunteer Cadet Corps (VCC)

- a. The VCC is a voluntary nautical youth organisation that is sponsored by the MOD and is under the command of Assistant Chief of Naval Staff (Training)/Flag Officer Sea Training (ACNS(T)/FOST) and is administered by Commander Core Naval Training and Recruitment (COMCORE).
- b. The VCC operates in accordance with JSP 814 and VCRs. Sponsorship, funding, access to training facilities and estates, and other support from the MOD is provided in accordance with the Memorandum of Agreement for the Support of the Volunteer Cadet Corps.
- c. The VCC aim is to provide opportunities for young people to develop into responsible, dependable and useful members of society, employing the traditions and practices of the Naval Service as the basis for their activities.
- d. Detailed regulations for the administration of the VCC are contained within JSP 814 and VCC Volunteer Cadet Corps Regulations (VCRs).

10205. The Combined Cadet Force (CCF RN-RM)

- a. The CCF RN_RM is a youth organisation which is part of an educational partnership between the DfE, schools and the MOD. Governance of the CCF RN-RM is delivered through a bilateral agreement between COMCORE and Army Regional Command (RC).
- b. CCF RN_RM is under Operational Command (OPCOM) of COMCORE and Operational Control (OPCON) is delivered by Army RC. As such Army RC may task RN CCF to deliver priorities and provide the best experience for CCF cadets and Adult Volunteers, increasing efficiency and effectiveness. This will include the need to meet direction from MOD, RN and Army chains of command. RC will have authority over how the RN syllabus is delivered.
- c. The aim of CCF RN-RM is to offer young people a broad range of challenging exciting, adventurous and educational activities to enable development of personal responsibility, leadership and self-discipline. Afloat training is the defining activity of the Naval Cadet Forces. The Royal Navy proficiency syllabus bases its training emphasis on leadership, afloat activities and adventurous training.
- d. Detailed regulations for the administration of the CCF RN-RM are contained with JSP 814 and JSP 313, including the RN Supplement.

10206. Status of SCC and CCF RN-RM Officers

SCC and CCF RN-RM officers, formerly of List 8 of the RNR and RMR, are members of the SCC and CCF List. Members of this list have honorary RNR and RMR status only, and are not considered to be members of a Reserve Force as defined by RFA 96. They do not hold commissions in the RNR and RMR and have no RNR or RMR training commitment or recall/call out liability. Officers are authorised to wear Naval uniform in accordance with BRd 3(1) Part 6, notably Chapters 38 and 39 or as amended by SCRs. SCC and CCF RN-RM officers are included in the Navy List.

10207. Status of VCC Officers
