To the families and friends of 45 Commando Group,

It seems like no time since I put pen to paper soon after getting back from the US. We have worked hard to prioritise activity but there seems to have been a steady stream of individual courses, top up training and assurance inspections to keep everyone on their toes. Importantly, we completed Exercise South West Sword, off the coast of Plymouth a couple of weeks ago. The weather was terrible which had a big impact on what could actually be achieved. Put simply, helicopters and landing craft don’t work too well in stormy conditions - this had major knock-ons to the planned activity which was frustrating for all involved. To their credit, the men and women of the Cdo stuck to the task (and we achieved about 2/3rds of what we needed to).

In and around camp, we have had the chance to pick up on some low-level skills and hone lessons from the recent trip to the US. Importantly, our Motor Transport Troop and Equipment Support Troop did a brilliant job by securing another strong pass on our latest external assurance audit - the Logistic Support Inspection. That they managed this while the preparations were largely conducted while the Cdo was deployed in California for the early part of the year was just superb. This also needed a heck of a lot of graft - for which we are all most grateful.

Recce Troop have just delivered a cracking ‘sniper experience’ package for some willing volunteers from across the UK and further afield - and raised over £20,000 for the Royal Marine Charity in the process. A fantastic effort.

Not long now until Easter Leave which is set from lunch time on 6th April until 23rd April. Around 20 people are on exercise during this period, but the great majority of folk should get the full period off. For your diaries, we also plan to secure the Cdo for the first May bank holiday for long weekend leave to break up this pre-deployment period - returning to work on 7th May. (Zulu Company are taking the following weekend off).

The plan still sees us setting off for the Joint Expeditionary Force (Maritime) (JEF(M)) deployment around 18th May. (Confusingly, you may also now hear this trip called ‘Baltic Protector’). This trip is shaping up nicely with the various threads coming together - with training from Denmark to Estonia, via Sweden, Germany, Latvia and Lithuania. It will be a real mix of planes, trains and automobiles (and ships...) between the various locations - lots of planning to be getting on with between now and then. We are still aiming to get back mid/late July, with summer leave scheduled for the 27th July to 25th August.
We are aiming to ensure there is plenty going on in Arbroath during this trip - details are posted on Facebook and will be updated on the next issue of the Condor Courier. If you have any ideas, do get in touch with the team or with me direct.

Finally, after four years in post, this is the last Condor Courier to be produced by Lorna Roberston - our Welfare Support Worker. She leaves us in April for pastures new; taking up a role as an executive assistant for a senior civil servant in Dundee. She has poured herself into life in and around Condor - whether developing the families' centre, organising trips or parties, or quietly sorting things out. We have done our best to anticipate some of the gaps that she leaves behind, and it has been great that folk have volunteered to assist in all manner of ways. But there will be things we have missed and for those of you who live locally, please bear with us as we adapt. We will all miss Lorna and wish her the very best of luck.

Regards,

Storybook Waves helps members of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines maintain the link with their children by recording a bedtime story for them to listen to when a parent is serving away from home.

The Royal Navy and Royal Marines deploy more frequently than personnel in the other services. Leaving loved ones behind when serving overseas or on board a ship, is a feature of life in the most ‘separated service.’ These separations can be especially difficult for children. Storybook Waves exists to help maintain the link between parent and child, no matter how far apart they may be.

Storybook Waves provides facilities for anyone serving away from home to record a bedtime story for their child. Once recorded, trained volunteer editors add a soundtrack and create a personalised CD for each child so that he or she can listen to a parent’s voice whenever they want. The recipients of each recording get a copy of the story being read, a scrapbook, and a medal with their recording - all for FREE!

Recording a story is quick and easy, it takes about twenty minutes! We have a selection of books available suitable for different ages you can choose from. For more information, or to make a recording, simply contact Seonid or Sue on 01241 822226 or pop into the Haven.
Welfare Support Worker leaving post

As most of you know I am leaving RM Condor and my post will be uncovered for a time until RNRMW advertise and fill the vacancy. I wanted to use this opportunity to thank you all for the help and support you have given over the past 4 years.

I also wanted to remind you of a few things, just so they are not forgotten about—

The families own items that are stored near my office. Sean Morrow the Welfare Caseworker can give you access to them for families events. There are—

- Halloween Decorations
- Christmas Decorations/Christmas trees (these have been used to decorate the Families Centre in the past)
- 2 x Chocolate fountains

The excess funds from families teas and coffees are banked with Central Bank on Camp (in the Base Company building). There is currently around £200 saved here (£30 of this money was charity money left from the garden project and is to be used for fixings for the new garden chalkboards).

New garden chalkboards—There are two large chalkboards (plus a box of chalks and a duster) for the Families Centre garden. Hopefully they will be installed soon.

Once they are installed please look after the chalks by replacing them in the box after each session (new chalks will need to be funded from the families tea fund). Please also wipe the boards at the end of each play session—the longer you leave the chalk on the board the harder it is to clean off!

For those whose children use the toys in the Families Centre please remember to have regular cleaning sessions to sort and clean the toys to keep them hygienic and in a good state of repair.

I have recently updated the local RNRMW Information Sheets and placed copies in the Families Centre—they cover subjects including Education and Childcare, Financial and Legal, Housing, Health and Sports/recreation. In the Families Centre you will also find Reading Force and Hello From Home workbooks as well as lots of information from military charities and other organisations who can help. If you would like a copy of any of the information sheets or if you need any further information you can go to www.royalnavy.mod.uk/welfare or email navymps-peoplesptrnrmwinfo@mod.gov.uk

If you want to keep up to date you can join the Royal Navy Forum at www.royalnavy.mod.uk here you will find a forum specifically for Arbroath.

You can also join the RNRMW Arbroath Facebook Group. If you have a question you can post it there. This group is moderated by RNRMW staff who will respond to you.

The RNRMW Community Development Worker for Scotland, Sophia, will be visiting coffee morning over the next few weeks and is looking forward to meeting you all.

I wish you all the best for the future
