

SSAFA SHORT BREAKS 2021

SSAFA, the Armed Forces Charity is running two family breaks this year. These are free, midweek residential adventure breaks for Forces families to attend with children who have an additional need and/or disability, aged between 5 to 18 years. Siblings are also welcomed.

16 August – 20 August at The Calvert Trust, Lake District
25 October – 29 October at The Calvert Trust, Devon

Places are offered first-come-first-served once we have received your application form. If you are successful in your application, depending on your location you will be allocated the short break nearest to you regionally.

For more information

Visit ssafa.org.uk/shortbreaks

To apply for a break, please email ANDA@ssafa.org.uk to request an application form.

Deadline for applications is Friday 28 May 2021.

Eligibility

- All children within the family must be between 5 – 18 years of age
- Children are dependents of a current serving person or reservist
- One child attending must have an additional need and/or disability
- At least one parent must attend the break with their child or children